CURRENT ROLES & RESEARCH

Wing Thye is Distinguished Professor Emeritus at University of California Davis and University Chair Professor at the China Economy Research Institute of Liaoning University in Shenyang, China. He is also Distinguished Fellow at Penang Institute; Visiting Professor at University of Hong Kong, University of Malaya, and Fudan University; and Adjunct Professor at Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. His current research is on efficient, equitable pathways to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals with projects on Green Finance, Middle Income Trap, Decarbonization Pathways, Biodiversity Protection, Promoting Productivity Growth in SMEs, and Global Economic Architecture for a Multipolar World. He is an expert on the economies of China, Indonesia, and Malaysia.

RESEARCH IMPACT & POLICY ADVISORY

Wing's article "The Monetary Approach to Exchange Rate Determination under Rational Expectations: The Dollar-Deutschemark Case," Journal of International Economics (JIE), February 1985, was identified by JIE in 2000 to be one of the twenty-five most cited articles in its 30 years of history, and his article "China Meets the Middle-Income Trap: The Large Potholes in the Road to Catching-Up," Journal of Chinese Economic and Business Studies (JCEBS), November 2012, won the Best Paper Prize at the 30th Anniversary Conference of the Chinese Economist Association (UK/Europe) in 2018. In early 1990s, he advised several centrally-planned economies on their transition strategies to market economy (Economies in Transition: Comparing Asia and Europe, MIT Press, 1997, with contributions from Leszek Balcerowicz, Boris Fedorov, Fan Gang and Jeffrey D. Sachs); and Indonesia on growth strategies and exchange rate management (Macroeconomic Crisis and Long-Term Growth: The Case of Indonesia,1965-1990, World Bank Press, 1994). He advised China's Ministry of Finance on the comprehensive tax and exchange rate reforms implemented in January 1994 (Fiscal Management and Economic Reform in the People's Republic of China, Oxford University Press, 1995), and the U.S. Treasury in 1997-98 on East Asian economies (The Asian Financial Crisis: Lessons for a Resilient Asia, MIT Press, 2000, which was featured at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland, February 1999). From 2002-2005, Wing was the Special Advisor for East Asian Economies in the Millennium Development Goals Project of the United Nations; in July 2005, he was appointed to the International Advisory Panel to Prime Minister Abdullah Badawi of Malaysia; and in 2008, he was economic advisor to Chief Minister Lim Guan Eng of Penang State. He was a coordinator of the ADB Institute project, Financing Green Development, 2017-2019, and co-editor of the resulting Handbook of Green Finance: Energy Security and Sustainable Development, Tokyo: Springer, 2019.
